In 1634, the Black Death decimated Europe, including almost 100 deaths in Oberammergau, Germany. The remaining villagers vowed that if God saved them from the plague, once every 10 years, they would reenact the Agony and Death of Jesus Christ. From then on, there were no further deaths from the plague, and the villagers have fulfilled their promise ever since. The play itself portrays the Passion of Jesus Christ – from His entry into Jerusalem to the Resurrection. The play consists of more than 2000 actors, singers, musicians and technicians. The Passion Play Theater is an open-air stage framed by magnificent Alpine scenery and a covered auditorium with almost 5000 seats.
