OUR MS ZUIDERDAM PANAMA CANAL ITINERARY:

DAY	PORT-OF-CALL	ARR.	DEP.
1	Depart Boston on a flight to Ft. Lauderdale (poss. Intermediate stop). Transfer to the ms Zuiderdam and depart.	-	5:00 PM
2	Half Moon Cay, Bahamas – If you've ever dreamed of the castaway experience or having a private island of your own, Half Moon Cay offers the opportunity to fulfill that fantasy. Located 16 kilometers (10 miles) southeast of Nassau, Holland America Line purchased the island in 1996 and set aside most of it as a protected wildlife sanctuary—only two percent of the island has been developed. This is especially appreciated by photographers and bird-watching enthusiasts as they explore the preserve and its variety of species. The island is small enough that you can see it all in a day, yet large enough to offer a range of activities: horseback riding, snorkeling with stingrays, a range of water sports and, of course, simply lounging on the beach while taking occasional dips in the clear sea to cool off. At the island's Straw Market, you can shop for crafts made in the Bahamas, while the waterfront bars and restaurant are ready to serve you a meal or drink when you've finished surveying paradise.	8:00 AM	3:00 PM
3	At Sea	-	-
4	Oranjestad, Aruba –The windswept Dutch island of Aruba is otherworldly. The beaches are spectacularly pristine, the waters are romantically restless, the island interior is lunar-like and filled with cacti, and the trees are—quite famously—bent in the wind. The island's consistent trade winds keep the humidity, rain and hurricanes common in much of the Caribbean at bay. The main port and capital city, Oranjestad, is a maze of Dutch-colonial architecture painted in a palette of Caribbean pastels. There are some historic sites of note and myriad shops, from boutiques to megastores, selling all sorts of keepsakes, with jewelry and gold being popular items. In Oranjestad and along the beaches you'll also find a treasure trove of excellent seafood restaurants, while farther afield are lighthouses, gold mine ruins and natural wonders that reflect the rugged appeal of Aruba.	1:00 PM	11:00 PM
5	Willemstad, Curacao – Curacao remains a part of the Netherlands to this day. Its historic center is a unique mixture of Dutch architecture and Caribbean pastels, its gabled row houses overlooking Sint Anna Bay, a waterway dividing the city in two and connecting the Caribbean to the protected Schottegat Bay. The entire historic center of Willemstad has been recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. While Willemstad's legendary days of yore can be explored at institutions like the Kura Hulanda and Curacao Maritime Museum, this is a vibrant, living city too. Highlights of this multicultural melting pot might include a stop at its floating market and a visit to a curacao distillery to taste the famous local liqueur. A meal in Willemstad will let you experience the diversity of the island through the surprising flavors of its cuisine, which reflects European, Caribbean and Latin American influences.	8:00 AM	11:00 PM

7	Panama Canal/Cristobal/Cruising Gatun Lake – Think of the Panama Canal, and the image that may come to mind is of the world’s huge tankers and cruise ships passing through a series of locks. That, however, reflects only one aspect of this part of the world. As ships travel from the Atlantic to the Pacific, they also pass colonial towns, historic fortresses and manmade lakes that are today home to sanctuaries for hundreds of different animal and plant species. At the Atlantic entrance to the Panama Canal, Colón evokes the old Panama of yesteryear, with its historic buildings gradually being restored. Some 77 kilometers (48 miles) to the south, at the canal’s Pacific entrance, Panama City’s glittering skyline of office towers and condominiums reflects the country’s dynamic present and future. Traveling between these two cities, an epic tale unfolds before you—an old-school feat of engineering, ambition and courage that today allows ships to cross the Panama isthmus, saving sailors from making the dangerous, almost 13,000-kilometer (8,000-mile) journey around the tip of South America.	5:00 AM	1:00 PM
8	Puerto Limon, Costa Rica – Like most coastal towns in Costa Rica, Puerto Limon is a perfect base from which to explore an attraction- and activity-rich region that can fulfill a variety of interests. You’re never far from a rain forest or outdoor adventure in Costa Rica, and there are lots of day trips from Puerto Limón that allow you to pack in an adrenaline rush or a few more ticks on your birding list within just a few hours. There are treetops for zip lining and rushing rivers for whitewater rafting if you’re a more active traveler, and animal lovers can take sanctuary tours in and around Puerto Limón. Of course, when it comes time to eat, there’s plenty of the national favorite, gallo pinto (rice and beans), and as with many port towns, there is lots of fresh seafood and even an upscale Italian restaurant. As for shopping, you can find arts and crafts that were made locally as well as treats like handmade chocolate.	6:30 AM	4:00 PM
10	At Sea	-	-
11	Arrive in Ft. Lauderdale and disembark. Transfer to the airport for return flight to Boston (poss. int.stop).	7:00 AM	-
